

Postman/Postwoman

External Description

Like a job close to home?

Embrace the early bird lifestyle as a mail(wo)man at bpost, where you can look forward to days that are both structured and varied, working in your region. And early finishes that help you find the right balance between your life and your work.

Your day-to-day job

Delivering newspapers

First task of the day: delivering newspapers to subscribers

Preparing the round

As part of a team, you sort, organise and load the letters and parcels in the order of your round.

Doing your round

You set off on your delivery round on foot, on an e-bike or in the van.

Your profile

- You have a B driving licence and can safely ride a bike, as you will use these two modes of transport on your rounds.
- You are able to speak and write Dutch well enough to form relationships at the centre and on your round.
- You are willing to work on Saturdays and enjoy a day off during the week.
- You are happy to start early in the morning and finish early to enjoy your afternoon.
- You like having some independence in your work but also appreciate working with others

as part of #TheBiggestTeamInBelgium.

- You enjoy working outdoors, while being aware of the vagaries of the weather.

As if you were there

See what the job involves:

slide 1 of 2

A virtual visit to the sorting centre

Start your visit

A day in the life of a postwoman/man

Watch the video

Your salary package

Monthly net pay between €2000 and €2100 depending on your family situation.

Based on:

Gross pay of €2189,31 working full time with employee status and double holiday pay.

And on:

- €8 net per day in meal vouchers
- €250 net per year in eco vouchers

- Contribution to moving costs
- €300 gross training allowance
- RGPT allowance of €102 net for 20 days' work
- Safety allowance in the event of no accidents of up to €82.76 gross for 20 days
- End-of year premium (after one year)
- End-of-year gift of €40 net
- A bonus of up to €915 net

Your benefits

- At least 24 holiday days
- Work alone and in a team
- Guaranteed employment in your region
- A wide range of training opportunities
- Career opportunities
- Bonus: you will become so good at preparing your cargo that you will be unbeatable at Tetris

Your future colleagues have their say

slide 1 of 3

Team spirit as social glue: "Friendly colleagues make me want to stay!"

#jobsinlogistics, #jobsnearyou

"bpost is the best for me!" Peter about the Job Day that changed his life

#jobsnearyou

"My family are proud of me," Hamza

#jobsnearyou