bpostgroup strives to create an inclusive environment with challenging projects and inspiring collaborations. With our employees at the heart of our organization, we don't believe in jobs, we believe in careers. We're now looking for a Legal Counsel Employment & Ethics who will make us move.

bpostgroup is built upon a foundation of strong corporate values and ethical business practices designed to support our sustainable and responsible business strategy. Each employee is a custodian of our company culture. These values and practices reflect our commitment to our employees, suppliers, customers, business partners, shareholders, and the larger society.

Your mission:

As Legal Counsel Employment & Ethics, you will be part of the team that advises and assists managers and the HR community in all collective and individual HR law matters, including responsible and consistent behavior in the company regarding (i) disciplinary measures for breaches of ethics as well as (ii) employment termination in the context of poor performance, disorganization of service or job quitting.

As part of its ESG vision, bpostgroup is committed to managing all collective and individual dimensions of human resources, including the disciplinary process and termination of employment, in a responsible, consistent, and respectful manner towards the colleagues concerned.

Main responsibilities:

1. Provide effective legal advice and assistance to managers and HR community in all collective and individual HR law matters including strategic and significant HR projects.
2. As a business partner, contribute to business compliant solutions throughout HR processes for all categories of employees by giving support in complex problems relating to e.g., recruitment, promotions, compensation and benefits, mobility, reinstatement following work incapacity, psychosocial well-being, social inspections, including for some subsidiaries.
3. Provide effective legal advice and assistance to managers and HR community in disciplinary matters relating to civil servants and contractual employees:
 - a. disciplinary measure best suited to the breaches to be dealt with;
 - b. compliance with procedures: steps of disciplinary process for civil servants, respect of rights of defense, compliance with deadlines in case of dismissal for serious cause;
 - c. consistency of sanctions between bpost business units and entities for similar breaches.
4. Provide effective legal advice and assistance to managers and HR community regarding termination of employment:
 - a. grounds for employment termination that correspond to underlying facts and behaviors such as poor performance, disorganization of service or job quitting;
 - b. compliance with procedures: respect of rights of defense, substantiated reasons for business request for employment termination, communication with union partners.

5. Develop draft documents and propose improvements to procedures and processes in all collective and individual HR law matters, including discipline and termination of employment, to increase efficiency and service quality.
6. Monitor developments in legislation, case law and legal doctrine in area of expertise; keep own legal documentation up to date and collaborate proactively in communicating legal updates to colleagues.
7. Prepare and give trainings to managers and HR community in managing ethics and employment termination aiming at efficiency, fairness, and consistency.
8. Prepare reports on case evolution and categorization, developments and trends, significant and sensitive files and make recommendations based on this reporting.
9. Organize consultations with internal stakeholders, e.g., Legal & Compliance, Privacy and Data Protection Office, Integrity Partners, and external stakeholders, e.g., lawyers, union partners, public bodies, on significant and sensitive files.
10. Contribute to the implementation of legal changes in all collective and individual HR law dimensions and of new company policies, e.g., Responsible Behavior Program, Speak Up.

Your profile:

We do not only deliver letters and parcels, but also opportunities. This job is open to all with diverse backgrounds and talents, possessing the following skills:
