

Revenue & margin management expert

BRUSSELS

External Description

Context

bpostgroup strives to create an inclusive environment with challenging projects and inspiring collaborations. With our employees at the heart of our organization, we don't believe in jobs; we believe in careers. We create an environment that encourages professional growth, offering stimulating projects, the latest technologies, and comprehensive training programs for all. In this context of continuous evolution and development, we are currently seeking an Revenue & Margin Management Expert.

Your mission

As a Revenue & Margin Management Expert, you are responsible for optimizing revenue streams and margins through data-driven capacity management. In this role, you work closely with operations, the commercial team, and finance to develop capacity models that not only enhance operational efficiency but also achieve strategic advantages in profitability. You analyze the use of lockers, post points, identify opportunities, and formulate strategies that align capacity utilization optimally with market demand and pricing structures.

Tasks and Responsibilities

Revenue and Margin Optimization

Develop pricing and capacity strategies aimed at enhancing the profitability of lockers and post points.

Analyze margin structures per channel and advise on adjustments based on capacity utilization and market developments.

Evaluate the ROI for investments in additional capacity and develop models to maximize revenue opportunities from new assets and channels.

Capacity Planning with Profit Goals

Create capacity plans that align with revenue targets through demand forecasting, market analysis, and cost control.

Explore demand and price elasticity to guide capacity decisions that optimally balance customer demand and business outcomes.

Actively monitor peak periods and adjust capacity models to capitalize on these moments commercially.

Strategic and Operational Guidance

Collaborate with the control room and operational teams to support profit-driven decisions based on daily capacity data.

Identify real-time capacity challenges and develop strategies to manage their impact on margins and revenue.

Contribute to the long-term capacity management strategy that closely aligns with the commercial goals of the bpost group.

Analysis and Reporting of Profit Opportunities

Conduct extensive analyses on the usage of various channels and their impact on revenue and margins.

Prepare reports that provide insights into capacity utilization, cost structures, and profit contributions per channel.

Translate complex analytical data into strategic recommendations for both operational and commercial teams.

Stakeholder Management

Act as a key partner for commercial teams and finance, providing insights and advice on capacity and pricing.

Communicate effectively with diverse teams to achieve shared goals in profit optimization and capacity management.

Profile

- Master's degree in Business Economics, Logistics, Data Science, or a related field.
- At least 5 years of experience in revenue management, margin analysis, or capacity management, preferably in the logistics sector.
- Extensive knowledge of financial analysis, cost structures, and profitability models, with experience in identifying commercial opportunities through capacity management.
- Advanced skills in Excel, including creating reports and analyses.
- Strong communication skills to clearly and concisely convey complex insights to operational and commercial stakeholders.
- Experience in stakeholder management between operational, commercial, and financial teams to support strategic business goals
- Experience with BI tools such as Power BI or Tableau for in-depth commercial analysis.
- Familiarity with capacity and demand forecasting techniques and the development of commercial capacity models.

- Affinity for dynamic pricing strategies
